

You brought home your new Macintosh – now what?

Get started quickly and easily!

Rely on iMaven Consulting for the services you need:

For your hardware:

- Complete setup and installation of your Macintosh, iPod, printer and all hardware.
- Configure Internet access and email
- Set up your .Mac account and install .Mac software
- Transferring your data
- Training on popular applications
- Recommendations for hardware and software

The little extras that are essential:

- Set up your computer the way you want
- Shortcuts to make life easier
- Training and familiarization in a language you understand
- Focus in on what you want to do

Why iMaven Consulting?

- › Onsite services
- › Certified member, Apple Consultants Network
- › Apple Certified Trainer
- › Years of experience, working with users from novices to pros
- › If we don't do it, we know who does!

We know you have choices when it comes to technology consulting and training. We simply offer our clients a level of service and support that defines the term 'value', so they come back year after year. If you're happy, we're happy.

Call or email today to make your appointment. You've invested in great technology; take the next step to ensure smooth setup and a truly enjoyable experience.

Rates available upon request. No trip charges within the Greater Seattle area. Confidentiality is guaranteed.